Mercy is more than just a building;
it is a way of life.
Its truth has touched
thousands of people
in its forty-one years.
Like any other way of life,
it has been molded by the people
in its past,
and is daily being formed by the present generation.

To all unique individuals

DA PER MATREM ME VENIRE

BISHOP KEARNEY

My dear Friends.

My sincere congratulations to each of you in the class of '69. You have chosen a very timely name for your yearbook. When Jesus Christ appeared before Pilate he said: "For this I was born and for this I came into the world, that I might bear testimony to the Truth. Everyone that is of the truth, hears my voice." I note also that your School seal bears His words. "I am the Way, the Truth and the Life". You have learned at a fine school where that Truth is to be found today, in the teaching of the Catholic church under the Vicar of Christ, our Holy Father, the Pope. May God strengthen your faith in that Truth as the years go by, until the happy day when you will enjoy for Eternity, the presence of "The Way, the Truth and the Life"

SISTER MARY BRYAN
Principal

The education of teen-agers is more than a job; it's a responsibility. In her first year as principal, Sister Mary Bryan has demonstrated well that she is the person to handle that task. Just as she has often urged us to do, Sister cares about Mercy. With years of experience in guidance, Sister has introduced a fresh spirit of change and challenge.

Counting time is not so

REVEREND ANTHONY J. VALENTE
Chaplain

One senior doesn't wear a uniform. Father Valente, known to most people as a Chaplain, also rates the title "senior" because just four years ago he was as new to Mercy High as the Class of '69. But more than that, Father stands out as a person who's always ready to help, often just by being an understanding listener. It is for this reason that Father's door is always open, and Room 308 is one of the most popular in the school.

SISTER MARY BONAVENTURE
Vice Principal

Nine periods a day multiplied by one thousand equals the schedule problem Sister Bonaventure has undertaken. And now Sister is initiating flexible scheduling and more independent study. All this and math classes too! Our vice principal's efficiency is a source of amazement to all of us.

When Sister Mary Alexius died on May 13, 1969, a bright star in Mercy's sky had set. A musical genius, Sister generously shared her talents: instructing Mercy's instrumentalists, accompanying choral classes and soloists, playing the organ, composing Masses and hymns for special occasions. Many graduates have stepped off the stage to the rhythm of Sister Alexius' Recessional.

AFFABLE AND CAPABLE Junior leaders Susan Decker, secretary; Sister M. Celeste, moderator; Adele Fico, president.

The Juniors acquired a new status along with the wearing of class rings. It was a year involving many decisions and much hard work.

Yet there was also a fun side to the year. Snoopy took the prize on Field Day, and their fantastic cheerleaders ranked first. Dramatics claimed many members of the class, and "Winnie the Pooh" delighted children from the inner city. Their unremitting energy was a big asset also in the IBM drive. Then the Junior Prom cast its special spell over the year. Vocal and vivacious, the Juniors enjoyed being "almost on top."

And now, suddenly, Moving-Up Day is upon them—"Hats off to Seniors!"

The Sophomores experienced their most carefree year. Green was traded for blue, and the Sophs were off in a whirl of activity. The Extension Wing became a "home away from home," with a library club of their own and a "Be nice to Soph" bulletin board. Their Class Mass of Unity gave them a feeling of belonging which sparked a special spirit. They won the Little Championship, played their guitars gleefully, and cherished their huge Joy Ball from King's Prep.

As June rolls round and their junior year approaches, they continue to grow in the true Mercy tradition. In the words of Charlie Brown: "How can we lose when we're so sincere?"

The Freshmen were adopted by Mercy's family on Field Day and given an opportunity to exhibit their skill at sports and their singing talent, as well as the "wearin' o' the green." Their exuberant spirit grew as they experienced Mission Day, the Golden Mass, and the wintry telephone book drive. The Valentine Dance created an aura of romance which was quickly dispelled at the next gym class.

Suddenly it's spring, and with spring comes the end of an unforgettable year—yet also the anticipation of another, as balcony seats are vacated for more choice ones below.

PLANS DISCUSSED FOR NEXT TERM

The second meeting of the S. S. C., comprising students of St. Francis de Sales High School, of Geneva; Nazareth Academy, and Our Lady of Mercy High School, was held Sunday, February 7, at Geneva. The four officers of the Sodality and the heads of the various committees, accompanied by several of the nuns, attended the meeting. Plans for future monfhs were discussed and results of campaigns held since October were reported. Claire Louise Harvey presented the reports for all the committees of the Sodality of O. L. M. H. The next meeting will be held at Mercy High in June.

R. B. I. Representative Gives Talk

An inspiring talk was given to the student body by Mr. E. C. Humphrey of the Rochester Business Institute on Friday, February 5. Mr. Humphrey spoke in detail on the four necessary essentials for success; namely, character, education, discovery of self and work. By quoting actual experience in the various schools in which he has spoken, Mr. Humphrey made the girls realize the need of these four to become successful in life. The talk was well received both by the students, who immediately resolved to put Mr. Humphrey's words into effect, and by the members of the faculty, who are expecting a great change in the girls' application.

Mercy in Snow

A few days ago, after Rochester experienced one of the heaviest snowstorms of the season, some loyal Mercianne very artistically engraved a huge "Mercy" in the snow on the slope behind the school. There was the name of the Alma Mater so dear to Mercy students, guarded on all sides by pure white glistening snow and, as the students at different times gazed on this dear name, many a silent plea was made that the reputation of this school always remain unsullied by any shame or disgrace which might be caused either by a present or future member of Mercy High.

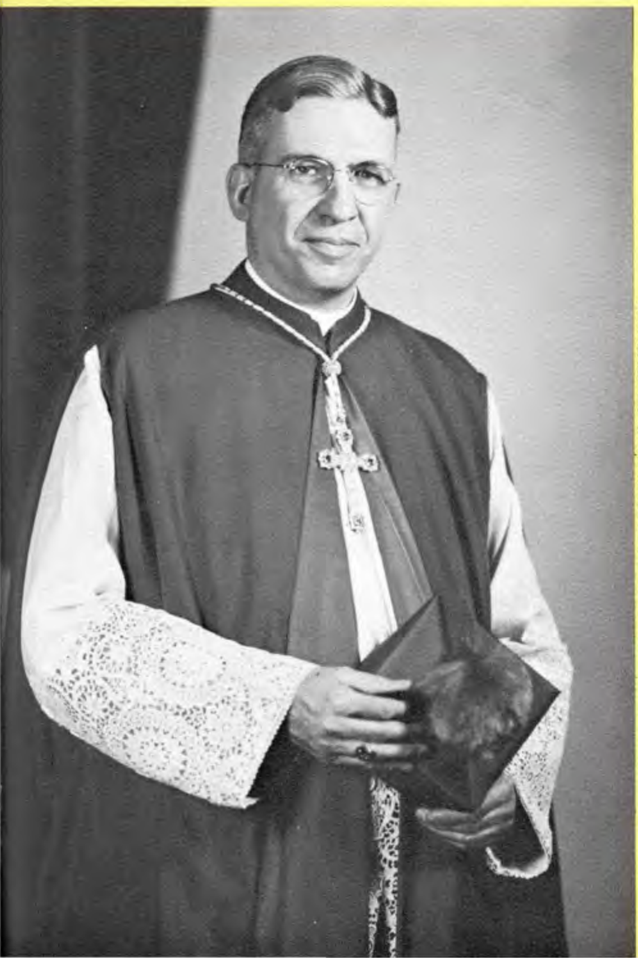
MOST REV. LAWRENCE B. CASEY
Bishop of Paterson, New Jersey
Mercy's Chaplain — 1937-1945

EVERY TUESDAY AT MERCY from October 26, 1937, to June 13, 1945, was a thought-provoking day. Father Casey, then Bishop Kearney's secretary, came regularly to Mercy to instruct and guide the students. Field Day was the Bishop's special legacy; he felt that Mercy spirit would thrive on friendliness. Although Ellison Park was later abandoned in favor of the Mercy campus, the tradition he established has endured.

WE, AT MERCY, claim Bishop Casey as a real friend. We are proud that he is a vital part of the history of our school. Our thanks and prayers reach out to him as he continues to lead God's people.



GROWTH AND PROGRESS

Mercy has met the challenge of time.

Perhaps the most tangible proof of her consistent drive forward is the physical growth of the school. The Mercy High of 1928 was expanded in 1941 to include an auditorium, classroom and gym annex, and this year has overflowed into the Catherine McAuley College classrooms, built in 1959. Mercy's enrollment has swelled from 72 to 1025, and the faculty now numbers 65. Despite pessimistic predictions concerning Catholic education, Mercy is still on the march.

The academic life of Mercy has developed also with her expanding student body. Flexible scheduling and independent study, as well as honors and advanced placement courses, cope with the variety of abilities and interests of large groups. The 1969 flair for modern languages has created a demand for Italian, while the sciences increasingly lay stress on experimentation and research. To keep up with the space age, a course in computer programming is being introduced, and emphasis on the arts is preparing this generation for more productive leisure hours. Since 87% of the students are competing in the college admissions race, much stress is placed on scholarship.

Changes occur when the old gives way to the new. So Mercy continues to keep pace with a progressive world.

BEFORE THE WALLS CAME TUMBLING DOWN, Mercy's cafeteria looked like this.

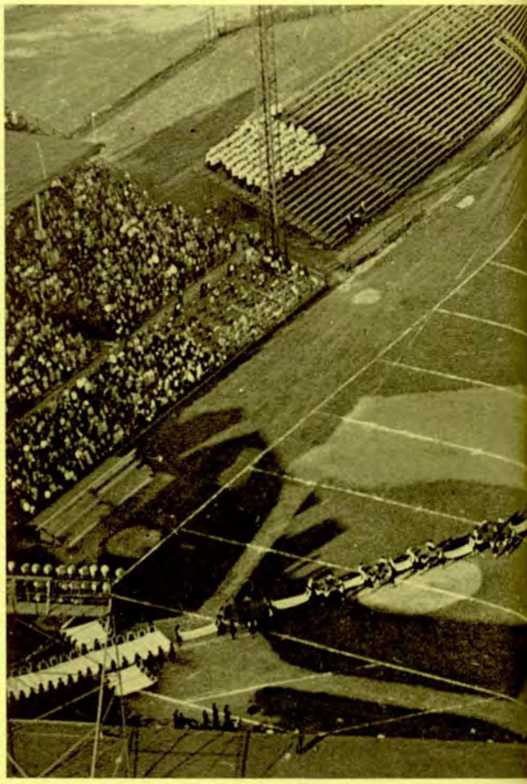
ALL ROADS LED TO MERCY after Gov. Rockefeller opened the new Expressway in 1959. County Manager Gordon Howe joined the proud group of Mercians.

THE VOICE OF PROGRESS brought significant innovations. Mercy owes much to Father Richard Tormey who was the school Chaplain from 1951 to 1960.

MAYPOLE PAGEANTRY added to the splendor of May Day.

THE IDEAS OF CHRISTIAN WOMANHOOD have always been envisioned in the May Queen and her court. Bishop Kearney has regularly officiated at May Days over the years.



THE MAGNIFICAT OF MERCY told the story of the hundred years of service given by the Sisters of Mercy to the Rochester Diocese.

TREE PLANTING symbolizes growth. Year after year the Seniors retain this significant tradition.

TRADITION . . . PAGEANTRY

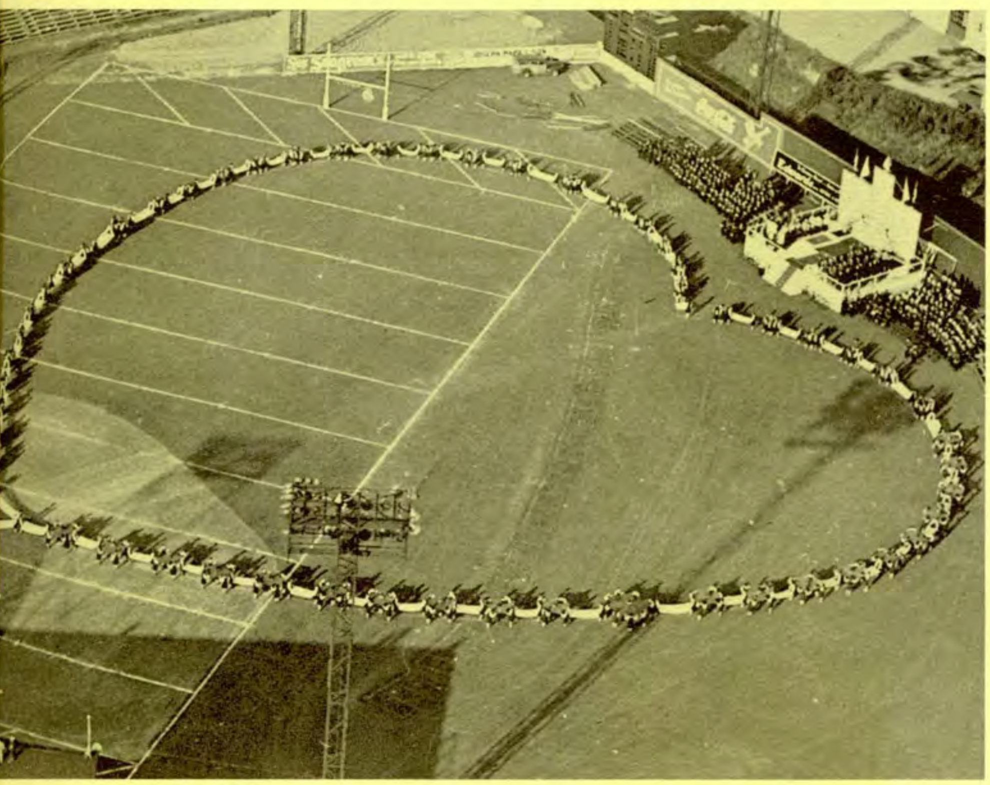
Meaningful traditions, mingled with pageantry, have created a unique Mercy spirit.

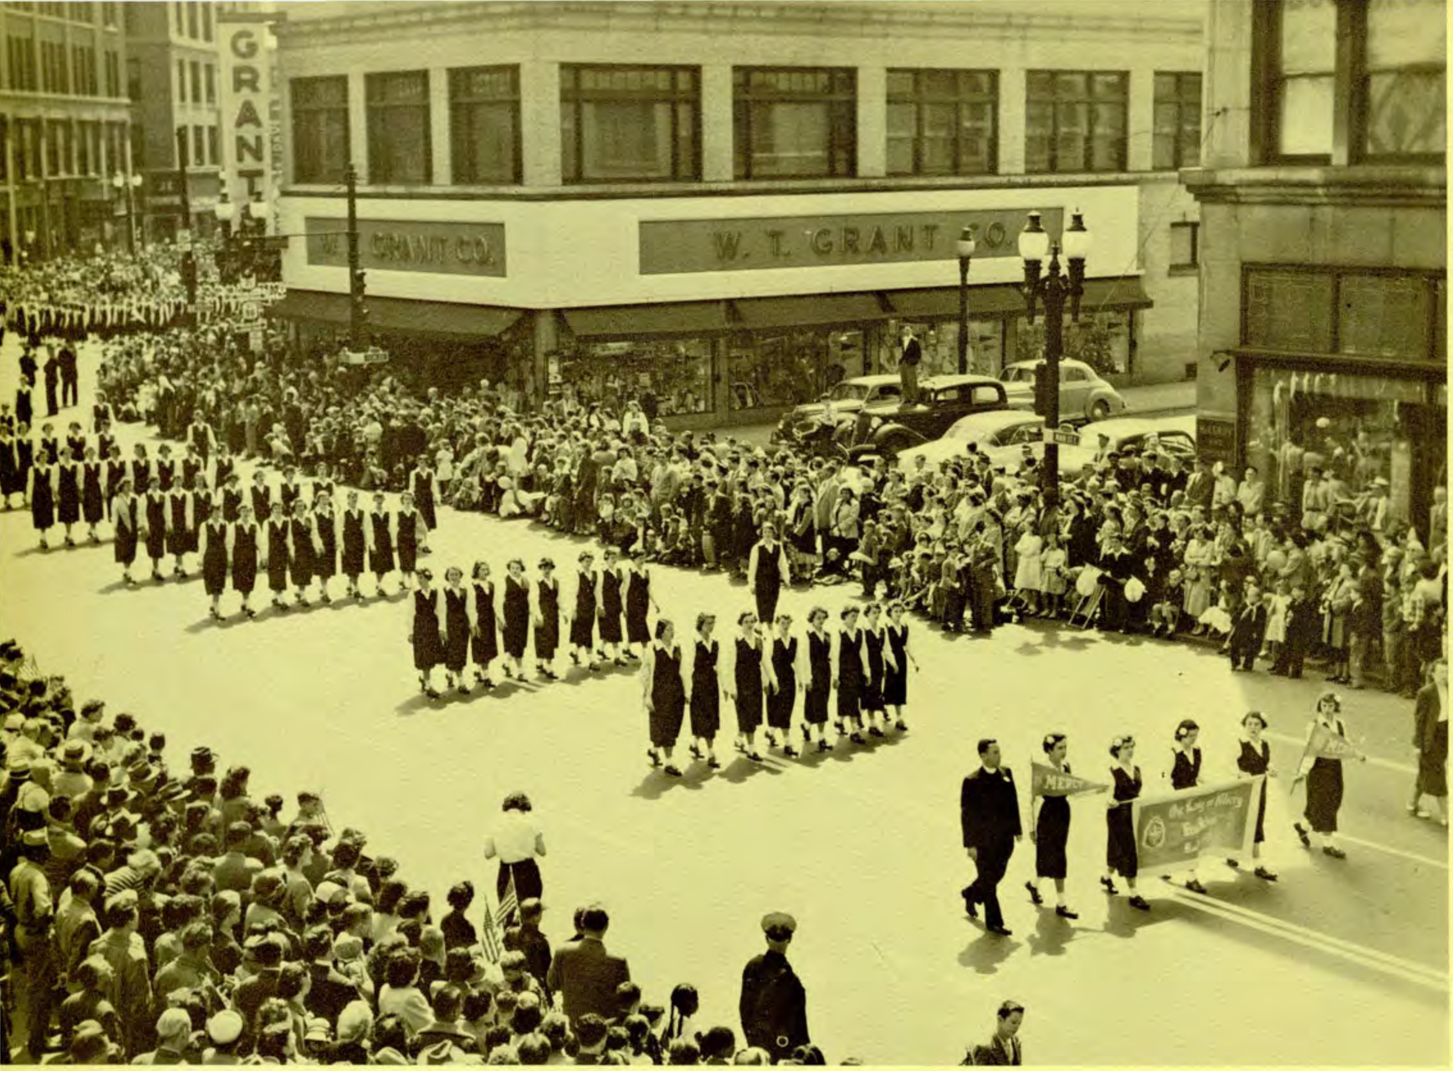
Introduced by Bishop Casey in 1938, an exciting opener each September is Field Day. The underclassmen are forced to get acquainted while the upperclassmen have a chance to "be young, be foolish, but be happy." Spiritual blessings, too, punctuate the year in the Mass of the Holy Spirit offered by the Bishop and the Golden Mass during Advent when everyone thinks of Christ's poor. For the graduates, the Rose Mass is as significant as it was 38 years ago.

The transition from outside to inside May Day ceremonies was a measure of practicality. Although it has evolved considerably since the first one in 1929, May Day remains a special day to honor Our Lady, Queen of Mercy High.
The presentation of awards, Class Day, tree planting and Moving-up Day bring the year to a fitting close. This year the distribution of VERITAS, volume one, will introduce another annual happening.

And so it is with Mercy's traditions — a living framework on which to build the future. Although externals may become dated or pageantry modified, traditions are timeless.

RED WING STADIUM BECAME PRAYER-FILLED as Mercians formed a living rosary in the spectacular '40's.





THE SPIRIT OF MERCY was communicated in the 1952 Memorial Day Parade, as Father Tormey and Mrs. Young led the parade down Main Street.

COMMUNICATION

Communication is essential to our moment in time.

Youth at Mercy speaks through the media of the arts. Since the '30's the orchestra and glee club have provided a means of expression for the musically gifted; Mercy's dramatic efforts have presented an opportunity for those with theatrical tendencies. An expanded humanities program exposes the students to cultural advances. For the second time a group of students visited New York's Lincoln Center this year.

Mercians speak and find truth through student news and literary publications. Conventions and conferences in other cities have brought students from distant areas together. Ideas have also been shared through exchange students and world correspondence.

In recent years the communication gap between continents has been effectively bridged as Mercy students engage in foreign study programs.

THE BARRETTS OF WIMPOLE STREET, with Linda Casey in the lead, was one of the theatrical productions directed by Sister M. Antonia, Sister M. Peter and Sister M. Pius throughout Mercy's first forty years.

SOCIAL AWARENESS

Actions speak eloquently — so Mercians have proved their concern for society through the years.

In 1928, the CSMC, organized with the help of Rev. Leo Mooney, pioneered in social awareness. Mission Days were begun, and peoples all over the world have been aided by the generosity of Mercians. The spirit of sacrifice still pervades as Penny Queens walk the corridors of Mercy High.

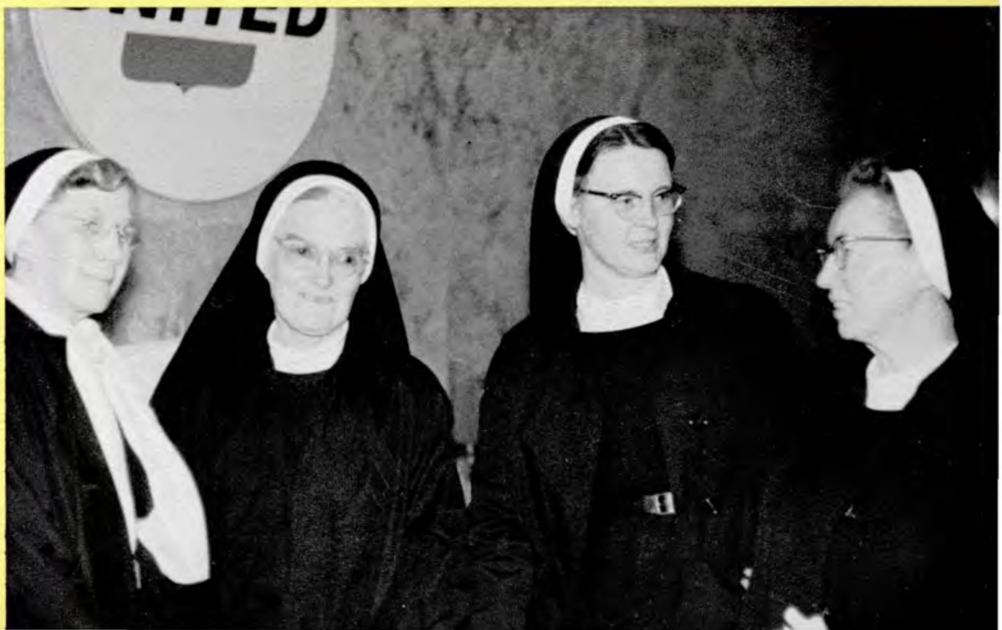
In that same year the Sodality was set up by Sister M. Adelaide under the guidance of Rev. Daniel Lord, S. J. Concentrating on the home front, this group, now the CAM, became personally involved in helping the less fortunate. The SGA and the McAuley Club concentrate much effort in relieving suffering and tension caused by poverty and racial intolerance. Today their commitment prompts them to tutor and entertain inner city children and to visit hospital patients in Rochester and retarded children in Newark.

Social awareness is still an integral part of Mercians—just as evident today as when they marched in the Memorial Day parades.

BISHOP SHEEN visited Mercians in 1953 to thank them for their outstanding mission contributions. Sister M. Francesca, principal, and Sister M. Florence, vice-principal, welcomed him.

CHRISTMAS CAROLERS were always ready to share youthful talent with the community.

OUR AMBASSADORS TO IRELAND were greeted at the airport by Sister M. dePazzi, and Sister M. Judith. Sister M. Florence and Mother M. Bride, Mother General of the Sisters of Mercy, enjoyed a glorious three weeks in "Old Erin." The trip was a gift of the Parents' Association to Sister Florence on her retirement as Mercy's principal. On the agenda were visits to Mother Bride's family as well as to the grave of Mother McAuley, foundress of the Sisters of Mercy. In Ireland Sister Florence gathered much data for her present position as Community Historian.



SISTER MARGARET IS SURROUNDED by former graduates Mrs. Fern (Smith) Bryan, Mrs. Theresa (Austin) Dieter and Mrs. Joan (McGrath) Springer. Mercy's pioneer music teacher can recall scores of graduating classes.

MRS. YOUNG IS FLANKED by Mercy's Hall of Fame from over a quarter of a century.

My dear Graduates,

For four years you have attended a school founded and guided by the life, principles and teachings of Jesus Christ. You were concerned with moral and spiritual values as well as with a sensitivity for the needs of others.

Yours is a school where feminine visions and attitudes are expressed by a deep concern for goodness, beauty and truth; a reverence and respect for life and a firm conviction that all men can lead better lives. Your heritage is rich with a deep and penetrating meaning for life and love which transcends time as well as technology.

Yours will always be a school under the aegis of Mary, the Mother of Jesus, and who with Him will always be the source of "the Way, the Truth and the Life." I pray that this heritage will continue to direct your lives.

Devotedly in Christ Jesus,

Sister Mary Bryan

Marge Heisel examines school blazer while Kitty Barry, in matching jumper, looks on.

Mercy Goes Modern; Uniforms Get New Look

Today with the changing trends in fashion, Mercy also wants to find her name on the fashion page. Next year, its students will be wearing the lastest style — (no, not Garbo pants and body shirts) but navy blue wool jumpers and white blouses.

After weeks of looking through the many different types of uniforms that the companies had to offer, this one was chosen. The Rollins Uniform Company has been selected to make the uniforms. Out of the four companies asked to make a sample navy blue jumper, they provided the best quality and price.

Optionals Available

Along with the jumper and blouse, a navy blue blazer (emblemed or plain pocket), sweater and kneesocks will also be part of the uniform, but are optional to the students. The price of the jumper will be about fifteen dollars and that of the blazer about twenty-five dollars. The type of sweater has not yet been choosen, so the price is still undecided.

Students Help Decide

Because it is the students who wear the uniforms, a committee of ten girls and a few mothers from the School Board had the final say. The girls on the committee represented the four classes. They were: Cathy Colucci, Pat Wafer, Wendy Wilkins, Janet Hurley, Betsy Wynne, Cathy Doyle, Debbie Dooley, Pat Guagliardo, Mary Segerson and Margie Heisel. Sister McAuley also played an important part in this, for it was she who contacted all the companies and contributed her advice. Later, after the uniform was selected, it was viewed by the faculty.

So girls, don't be surprised if Mercy is voted one of the ten best dressed next year — schools that is.

U.N. Delegates Travel To Foreign Destination

Toronto, Canada was the scene of a mock United Nations conference of Canadian and northeastern United States' high school students. Senior Carrie Stankevich and junior Louise Knauf were Mercy's representatives. Along with students from Pittsford and Penfield High Schools, they presented the views of the tiny Arab Nation of Kuwait. Three other area high schools — Gates-Chili, Eastridge and Nazareth—also attended the convention as Bolivian representatives. The council took place on January 30, 31 and February 1, and 2. The students boarded at the homes of Canadian students also attending the meeting.

On the first night of the council, Carrie and Louise attended a debate on a major international issue. the next two days were spent at model General Assembly meetings and various committee conferences. On Saturday, February 1, the students joined in an interesting custom of the council. They had a lunch called a "starvation dinner" which consists of only rice and water. The students were asked to donate the money they normally would have spent to a specified U. N. charity. The day ended with a large dinner and a dance. This mock United Nations meeting should have given Mercy's representatives an interesting and informative experience.

'Flame' Strikes Mercy

"Who's sure to turn up
When things start to burn up?"

Why it will be the Blue Bird Hose Boys, of course! What's that you say — you've never heard of these reputable lads? Then it's obvious that you haven't yet seen Mercy's coming attraction, THE FIREMAN'S FLAME.

Musical Debut

John Van Antwerp's musical melodrama is set in New York City during the period of the 1890's. It is the intriguing story of deceit, scheming and revenge. Harry Howard, an upright young man, joins the Blue Bird Hose Boys, an equally upright branch of the volunteer fire department. Their antagonistic rivals are the Red Hearts, an aristocratic branch of the same department. Thus Harry's deadly foe becomes Napoleon Markham, the Red Hearts' villainous leader. Harry falls in love with Daphne Vanderpool, a wealthy heiress. His plans are thwarted, however, by Markham aided by the devious Vesta Violet. Markham plans to win the hand of Daphne and thereby become an heir to the Vanderpool wealth.

Tryout Results

Cast in the lead roles are Ruth Garvey as Vesta and Jim Wojasiewicz as Harry. Other parts have gone to Suzi Della Villa who will appear both as Daphne and Mrs. Howard, Harry's aged mother, and Ken Shippy as Napoleon Markham. Jenny, the girl who lives next door to the firehouse is played by Chris Zimmer. Two flighty debutantes of the period, Misses Snodgrass and Cabot are portrayed by Karen Klingler and Judi Skelly respectively. Bill Quinlisk will be seen as Nozzle and Joe Bretz as Mose, both members of the Blue Birds, joined by Bill Keenan as another hose boy. Bill Dambrowski is cast as Rensselear, a dashing Red Heart volunteer, Tony Gigino as Bedlington, a footman at the Vanderpool mansion, Bill Hartman as Mayor Wickham, and Mary Jane Mahon as a Bowery B'Hoy. The cast is completed by the Fire Belles: Cathy Beack, Dawan Dorr, Kathy Gilman, Mary Jeanne Kenny, Marianna LoCurto, Mary Jane Mahon, Sheila McGee, Cheryl Scott and Joan Valvano.

Mr. Richard Mancini will be the director of this production, assisted by a new face in the director's chair at Mercy, Sister Mary Christine.

The chorus, led by Sister Mary Barbara and accompanied by Sister Marie David, has been rehearsing such rip-roaring numbers as "Hose Boy," "The Fireman's Flame," "Doin the Waltz," and "It's a Lovely Night on the Hudson River," — to mention a few.

Mr. Thomas Cahill is the choreographer and under his direction the chorus is sure to step along in a lively fashion.

THE FIREMAN'S FLAME promises to be a roaring success, a musical smash hit of the season. "But wait," you say. What becomes of Harry Howard? Does he ever win the fair Daphne, or does this unsuspecting Miss fall victim to the conniving Markham? Alas, I can not tell. For the answers to these questions and any others, we will be watching with you Friday night, February 28, or Saturday night, March 1, at 8:15 in the auditorium. See you there!

'Quiet Riot' to be Staged

"Don't retreat, advance" is the theme of sorts for the 1969 retreat being organized by chairman Beth Ashenburg and the SGA.

Two-day sessions will be held for the Freshman and Sophomores on Thursday, February 20, and Friday, February 21 and for the Juniors and Seniors on Sunday, February 23 and Monday, February 24.

An innovation in this year's scheduling is the introduction of optional days, Friday and Sunday respectively. This is being done in the hopes that it will encourage only those who really want to be there to attend.

Led by Father Green, chaplain at Nazareth Academy, the schedule will be much the same as in previous years. Conferences directed by Father Green, confessions given by the various parish priests, records and movies will be supplemented this year by student-led discussions and more freedom to make the kind of retreat you want.

Rooms are being made available so that students who wish to be alone or who want to discuss with friends relevant problems can do so. To this end, the college will be open to all students for their use.

According to Beth, the emphasis this year is on respect for others: respect for their freedom so that they may make the most out of retreat without being distracted. She hopes that with this extended freedom each girl will have the chance to experience a "quiet riot" within herself.

SYMPATHY

The faculty and student body wish to extend their sincere sympathy to Miss Mary Burkett on the death of her mother. MAY SHE REST IN PEACE.

Crews Accomplish Period Transition

The unsuspecting play-goer will leave his home in February of 1969 and arrive at Mercy's auditorium sometime in 1890. Being greeted at the door by young ladies in high button shoes and wide-rimmed hats is rather like walking into a turn-of-the-century drawing room. The members of the cast of the FIREMAN'S FLAME, including the ushers, will be dressed in period costumes which include heavy street dresses with puffed sleeves for the girls and dark waist-coats for the boys.

Jackie Bush is the head of wardrobe who worked behind the scenes to create this realistic atmosphere. Other backstage contributors are Lori Keenan, Brenda Copeland and Nancy Kitz on Sound Effects; Mary Kay Bayer, Barb Larkin, and Joan Esterheld on Hand Props; Rita Heberling, Stage Props; Chris Voellinger, Set Chairman; Laurie Smith, Make-up; and Nancy McGarvey, Lights.

Record High Induction In National Honor Society

"In youth there is hope," was the theme of the February 3 Awards Assembly. The purpose of this assembly was to formally induct the eligible members of the Senior Class into the National Honor Society. To be eligible for the NHS a student must have maintained an average of at least 89% during her four years in high school and must have won the approval of the faculty by exhibiting the qualities of character, leadership and service. Thirty-four girls, or roughly 15% of the Senior Class, were inducted at Monday's assembly. They were: Beth Ashenburg, Marilyn Ashley, Cathy Bruchhauser, Diane Cocuzzi, Carla Colombo, Angela DiLorenzo, Sandy Donovan, Cathy Dwyer, Chris Frost, Terri Gerhardt, Anne Hayes, Carol Johnson, Mary Kaufman, Anne Keller, Arlene Koziarz, Chris Kramer, Rosemary Krinsky, Maggie Marshall, Mary Mattle, Mary McDonald, Chris Mickiewicz, Lea Mutschler, Barbara Nesta, Linda Nufryk, Mary O'Brien, Anne Rhodes, Margaret Runyan, Doris Ryan, Linda Saltzburg, Barbara Schubert, Sharon Siebert, Regina Skelly, Nancy Slish and Jean Starkweather. According to Sister Walter, moderator of the SGA which sponsored the assembly, this was one of the largest groups Mercy has ever had.

In the same manner, this year's program was also something new to Mercy. Replacing the traditional speakers was a film program prepared by Beth Ashenburg and Mary O'Brien. The slides and accompanying readings featured the champions of the youth movement. Included in the films were some of our own champions of youth here at Mercy.

On another scholastic note, many other Mercians rated recognition as the new Scholarship and Honor Rolls were posted.

IBM Drive Promotes Unity; Profits to Improve School

Have you noticed those ambitious Juniors and Seniors busily at work on their latest project? If not, you soon will, as the classes of 1969 and 1970 unite in their efforts to raise money for school improvements.

The IBM drive has been carried on very successfully in the past, to the extent that over $4,000 was earned during a two year period. But, of course, the Juniors and Seniors hope to top this figure.

To do so, committees have been formed and plans drawn up. In charge of the whole drive are Senior class officers Colleen Hogan and Mary O'Brien, and Junior class officers Adele Fico and Sue Decker. Heading up the transportation committee is Melon Wilmot, assisted by JoAnn Springer, while communication is being handled by Marg Runyan, ably assisted by Carole Ashenburg. Secretarial duties will be taken care of by Rosemary Krinsky, assisted by Mary Ann Oaks. Serving in an advisory capacity is Mr. Meehan, who has given so generously of his time in the past to make the previous drives so successful.

There are hopes that this project will become somewhat of a tradition. As each Senior class graduates, a new Senior class, having had experience with the drive as Juniors, will be able to work with the new Junior class.

Be assured however, that money is not the only goal of this drive. Each year it will give the girls of the Junior and Senior classes a chance to work together.

Outside the school, the Joseph Avenue Center and Mount Carmel parties have given the students an opportunity for service to the local community. Operation Morale and the Aid-to-Biafra program have made us world-conscious. Packages and cards were regularly sent to the boys in Viet Nam "adopted" by each homeroom, and a school-wide campaign produced a thousand letters begging help for Biafrans.

SPARKLING TOYS AND GAMES are admired by Bev Martin.

THE CHRISTIAN ACTION MOVEMENT continually mixes tradition and new ideas. As in the past the CAM organized May Day, the Golden Mass and the Christmas baskets that brought food and presents to 67 needy families in the Inner City. The CAM also participated in workshops and seminars at Scranton, Buffalo and New York City, in addition to those held in Rochester. Current problems on the local and world levels also received attention.

BASKETS OF CHRISTMAS CHEER are an annual project for the CAM.

SPIRITUAL STIMULI during this year's retreat was given by Father Albert Bartlett from McQuaid.

A PERSONAL EXPERIENCE was the goal of RETREAT '69 at Mercy. The "I've Gotta Be Me" theme said it all in explaining the aim of Talk-ins, Flick-ins and Do-Your-Own-Thing time periods as each girl was given the opportunity to make a retreat that was relevant.

THE CATHOLIC STUDENTS MISSION CRUSADE is Mercy's branch of the world missions. In addition to Mission Day activities, the Penny Queen Contest, once again pitted the four classes against each other in the fine art of money-gathering for the Missions.

Homerooms sent letters and packages to their special missionaries and in turn received firsthand accounts from them. The CSMC also established a two-year scholarship to Mercy to be awarded on the basis of need. This year reached a climax in May with a lecture and concert by folk singer Joe Wise.

mission play

OUR HEARTS WERE YOUNG AND GAY wasn't just the title of this year's Mission Play; it was the feeling that the audience caught from the cast as well. The story of two college girls on their first ocean voyage provided an entertaining evening, and also served to draw larger crowds to the bazaar which followed.

"RIGHTO, OLE CHAP," grin Jody Bayer and Patricia Martin from behind tooth brushes.

A LITTLE SOMETHING for the girls is brought in by Mark Smith and Sheila McGee.

TUNING UP FOR THE MISSIONS with Sister Marie David are (clockwise) Suzanne Cook, Judith Wohlrab, Lori Brady, Patricia Cauley, Patricia Dunn, Sandra Cooper.

WELCOME ABOARD

MERCY'S MISSIONBOAT was the scene of games of skill and raffles as Mission Day '68 got under way in November. The bazaar featured unique prizes; goldfish were offered for the first time. The '69 Chevrolet Camaro was won by Mr. Richard Mack, the father of senior Kathy Mack. Raffles, play and bazaar netted the Missions $22,706.13 this year — a grand total by any standards.

TRY HARDER, MARY FRAN . . . they're not listening. (Mary Fran Wegman was Mission Queen for the second year.)

ANOTHER DEADLINE MET, co-editors Pat Sullivan and Maggie Denham survey the latest issue.

A WELL INFORMED STUDENT BODY is the primary aim of THE QUILL. Whether on the front page, in a cartoon, or in Adnil Tazlgurbs' syndicated column, news is the main concern. In maintaining its prize-winning form, THE QUILL mixes objectivity with attractive layout and design.

MERCEDES

THIS YEAR'S WILL BE EVEN BETTER, co-editors Maggie Marshall and Kathy Moran seem to say as they look at last year's Mercedes.

THE NOW MOMENT is created at Mercy in the pages of its literary magazine. The award-winning Mercedes owes its success to the originality of the students and to the ingenuity of the staff. Short story and non-fiction contests, held this fall, sparked Mercy authors to get out their pens. And write they did! The anxious excitement of pre-publication turned to jubilant pride when Mercians received the new and larger '69 Mercedes.

THE FIREMAN'S FLAME

a musical melodrama

GETTING A DONATION from her tight-fisted foster daddy, Adolphus Vanderpool (David Brown) requires a firm hand from Daphne (Sue DellaVilla).

IT'S THE NOSE ON HER FACE that captures Nozzle's (William Quinlisk) attention as he sings to Jenny (Chris Zimmer).

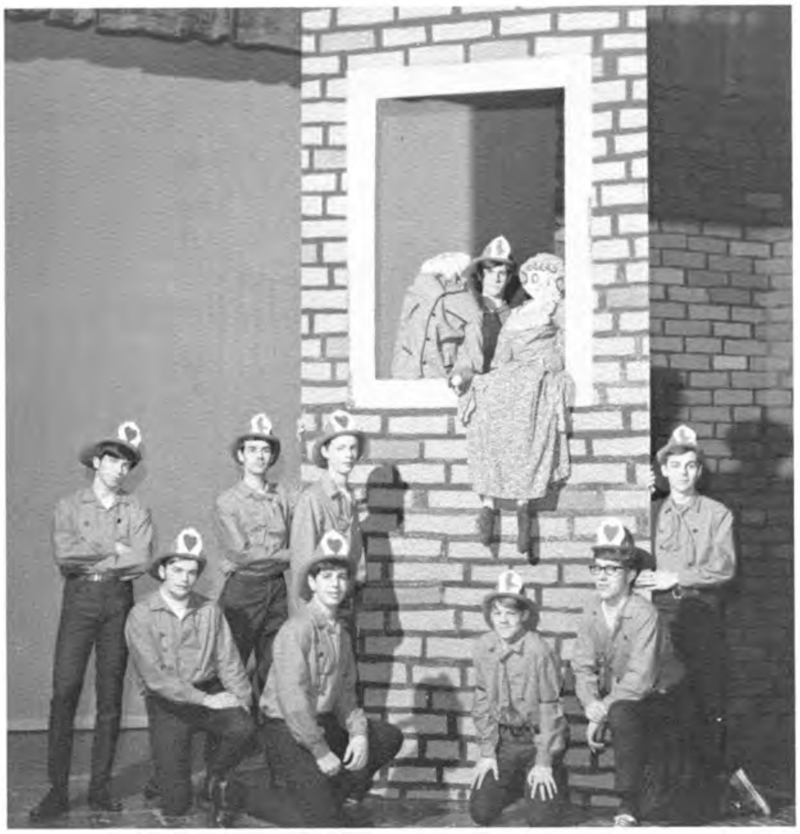
SO LADIES TAKE A TIP from these firemen's flames! Kathleen Gilman, Marianna LoCurto, Cheryl Scott, Mary Jane Mahon, Sheila McGee, Mary Jeanne Kenny, Joan Valvano, Catherine Bezek.

"WE'RE SOOOO PLEASED TO MEET YOU" squeal socialites Miss Cabot (Judy Skelly) and Miss Snodgrass (Karen Klingler).

ADD A DOSE OF CONFETTI instructs director Richard Mancini to prop crew members Kathy Brady and Maryangela Licata.

COURTING A COY HEIRESS tests all the love that brave fireman, Harry Howard (Jim Wojtasiewicz), can master.

THAT YOU CAN'T OUTWIT the Old Fox of Wall Street is quickly found out by the conniving Markham (Kenneth Shippy) and Vesta Violet (Ruth Garvey).



IF YOU WANTS A MUSS, you'll get a muss . . . from anyone of these ready firemen: Kneeling: William Dambrowski, Tony Gugino, David VanVoorhis, Richard Dollinger. Standing: Robert Jamieson, Luke Hobson, William Hartman, William Quinlisk, and Joseph Bretz (in window).

STRUNG CHESTNUTS curtained an exclusive area at the Fall Dance.

DANCES were the highlights of the year's social calendar, from the record hops to the Christmas Formal, held for the first time at Oak Hill Country Club. The Junior Prom was set to the theme of Barefoot in the Park, while the Seniors took Sayonara for the theme of their last formal at Mercy, the Senior Ball. We could have danced all night . . .

SPIRITED ALUMNAE-TO-BE Sharon Siebert .(Chairman of Membership Drive) and Colleen Hogan (Senior Class President) are encouraged by Alumnae officers Mrs. Carol Ferris '55 and Mrs. Patricia Long '44.

1. A SNOWBALL WAR was the last moment of fun before the newly chosen staff got down to work: Colleen Vaeth, Lynsay Broomfield, Carol Johnson, Mary McDonald, Marg Runyan, Mary Mattle, Janice Gargan, Anne Hayes, Dianne Mitchell, Terri Gerhardt.

6. ORGANIZATION WAS ESSENTIAL and Editor Mary McDonald often consulted Moderator Sister Mary Edmond just to make sure.

2. HUNDREDS OF SUGGESTIONS were submitted before the name VERITAS was chosen. Susan Kennedy, Jan Gargan, Chris Rudy, and Elaine Gotham give it a try.

4. THE PATRON DRIVE BEGAN, and Business Manager Lynsay Broomfield became "attached" to her trusty typewriter.

5. THE FINAL SUCCESS OF THE DRIVE was celebrated at the Maplewood Inn. Caught in the camera were Lynsay Broomfield, Sister Mary Estelle, Ginni Starks, and Mary Beth Metzger.

3. A TOUCH OF PAINT brightened up the Veritas office for the long hours ahead. Mary McDonald, Mary Mattle, Marg Runyan and Dianne Mitchell rolled on the green.

mercy's first yearbook is born...

11. PRIDE AND RELIEF are reflected in Mary's face as she basks in the reality of Mercy's first yearbook.

10. BURNING THE MIDNIGHT OIL as the final deadlines approached were Mary McDonald and Art Editor Jan Gargan.

7. THE YEARBOOK CONSULTANT was the vital link between staff and printer. Meeting at GM • DuBOIS CORPORATION were Carol Johnson, Anne Hayes, Mary Mattle, Mrs. Dorothy Gunner, and Assistant Moderator Sister Mary Estelle.

8. THE GIANT-SIZED CAMERA at DuBois impressed Photography Editors Carol Johnson and Anne Hayes.

9. COMPILING THE 40-YEAR HISTORY OF MERCY was the monumental task given to Mary Mattle.

Generous volunteers give Mercy

THE COLLEGE LIBRARY has added a new dimension to research facilities at Mercy. Sister M. Antonia, Mrs. Robert Allen and Sister M. Columba staff the library. The SOPHisticates, volunteer sophomores (pictured below), assist in its smooth running. Officers Doreen Cristo and Mary Lou Popen with moderator Sister M. Edmond point out their duties on the chart.

Mercy High has many people to thank — those who have supported us through the years and are continuing their loyal service. To all our benefactors we promise prayer and an effort to live up to the standards set by Mercy.

mercy's celebrities

THE SPIRIT OF JOY, given to Mercy by Sebastian Temple, radiates from his face and Marie Scheuerman's too!

ART EDUCATION EXPERT from R.I.T., Dr. Leonard Barkin, chats with Kathleen Dakin and Mary Sue Wiedemer after an assembly.

DYNAMIC Bernie Gifford relaxes with Carol Perry, Ginny Teall, and Gwen Felder.

MERCY'S FORMER CHAPLAIN (1960-1965), Rev. P. David Finks, returns to acquaint Miss DiLiberto and Sister Nancy Whitley, as well as the whole faculty, with inner city problems.

PRINCIPALS GALORE! Sister Mariella (Nazareth), Sister Anacletus (De Sales), Sister M. Maureen (Cardinal Mooney), Sister Agnes Catherine and Sister Marie Margaret (St. Agnes), Sister Janet Wahl (Notre Dame), Brother Edward Tracey (Bishop Kearney), Rev. Leon Hart (Aquinas) and Sister Johanna (St. Joseph's).

BISHOP KEARNEY DAY is dedicated by Anne Keller to show a small amount of gratitude for all the time he has lovingly given to Mercy. His words of wisdom are cherished.

A SPECIAL FRIEND OF MERCY was honored in the fall when the whole school celebrated Bishop Kearney Day. A Mass followed by an Irish musical program, expressed the warm feelings Mercians have for the Bishop.

SANDWICHED-IN BOOKTALKS to celebrate Catholic Library Week were given by Mr. John Mack, head of the Young People's Division of Rundel, and Mrs. Virginia Probst.

ENGLISH IS CREATIVE was the message Dr. Richard Donovan, chairman of the English Department, Nazareth College, gave the Senior Honors Seminar.

HUMANITIES was the subject treated by Miss Kathy King from the State Department to joint faculties. Sister Doris Hamilton and Sister Patricia Norton (Cardinal Mooney), and Sister M. Walter continued the discussion.

AND STILL MORE! Mr. John Driscoll (Aquinas), Mr. Franklin Kamp and Rev. Emmett Halloran (King's Prep), Rev. Joseph Gersitz (McQuaid), and Sister Patricia Donovan (Notre Dame).

It's been a real good year, and every year's been good since 6th grade when I met sweet, shy, naive Sharon?!! Stay that way.

Luv,

You poor kid having me next to you this 2nd semester.
You've put up with alot from me
("Tell me – is this hot?")
Now you even have scars to prove I was your Lab partner. You're really funny so keep laughing (whatever that means)
And keep those boys interested in your beautiful bod.
Oh – I just remembered some of those intelligent questions
I used to ask you (+ still do) ("are you going to be a virgin when you get married"?)

Love,
Patty Smith

To a great kid
Who doesn't have bad. Holy Spirit dances!
Peace & Luck,

You're a great kid. You've got alot going for you. Good luck next year.

It's really been great known you and I hope to see you next yr. Good luck always,
